

EMERGING LEADERS

WHERE TOMORROW'S COMMUNITY LEADERS MAKE AN IMPACT.

Grounded in reality. Focused on the future.

United Way QC Emerging Leaders is a passionate group of friends and colleagues – all connected by the causes we believe in. We're young professionals, creatives and philanthropist leaders who are working to solve big community problems, together.

If you're under 40 years old, motivated to help and are looking to connect with like-minded peers, we're the group for you.

MAKING NEW CONNECTIONS. ELEVATING VOICES. CULTIVATING LEADERSHIP.

There is so much that comes with joining our community. Members enjoy networking, leadership and professional development and community involvement opportunities. Not only that, but you can also...

- ▶ Get a backstage pass into the nonprofit sector through United Way Quad Cities networks.
- ▶ Connect with a diverse group of peers and local business and community leaders through exclusive events held throughout the year.
- ▶ Grow your leadership skills through exclusive professional development workshops and programs.
- ▶ Advocate for what you believe in.
- ▶ Invitation to serve on United Way committees to have a more direct influence on programs and initiatives.
