

RETIREES UNITED

Congratulations on your retirement!

Generosity comes in many forms. It's often the best way for you to support important causes that matter most to you in life.

As you look forward to the new opportunities retirement will bring, we hope you will continue to partner with United Way of the Quad Cities to build a stronger, healthier region for all Quad Citizens.

Together, we can achieve more to improve the quality of life for all in our community – getting more kids ready for school, more families stable and self-sufficient, and more people happy and healthy. It's not about short-term charity, it's about lasting change for generations to come.

YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

United Way welcomes you and invites you to stay in touch. You matter to us. Here is how you can stay engaged:

Volunteer

Select a project and share your time reading with kids, sprucing up area non-profits or participating in a mobile food drive through our Spring and Fall Day of Caring events. Looking for something more? Check out our online Volunteer Hub with opportunities found all across the Quad Cities at:
