DONOR NETWORKS

Link up with caring neighbors who share your interests.

Members of United Way Donor Networks prove the power of unity to create lasting change. Together with these passionate doers and change-seekers, we're helping lead the charge to improve education, income and health in our community. Together, we impacted more than 91,000 Quad Citizens last year.

WOMEN UNITED

Women United is a dynamic community of change makers and passionate philanthropists who are on a mission to see that every Quad Cities child is not just prepared for kindergarten, but thriving when they walk into the classroom.

AFRICAN AMERICAN LEADERSHIP SOCIETY

African American Leadership Society is a group of motivated advocates, donors and volunteers who support and enhance educational opportunities for all Quad Cities African American kids.

EMERGING LEADERS

Emerging Leaders are an energetic group under the age of 40 who work together to solve big community problems, while showcasing the Quad Cities as a dynamic place to build your life, raise your family and grow your career.

TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY

Our most generous Donor Network and a powerful force for good, for those contributing at least $10,000 in a fiscal year. Tocqueville members receive special recognition at the $10,000 and $25,000 levels.
(New donors can qualify for membership through the Step-Up Program.)

Early in your career? Under 40?

Consider joining with a recommended gift starting at $30 per month or $360 per year.

Looking to drive a lasting impact?

Many of our members give $85 per month or $1,000 per year.
